Opening Hymn

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven!
To his feet thy tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
who like me his praise should sing?
Praise him! Praise him!
Praise him! Praise him!
Praise the everlasting King!

Praise him for his grace and favour
to our fathers in distress;
praise him still the same as ever,
slow to chide and swift to bless.
Praise him! Praise him!
Praise him! Praise him!
Glorious in his faithfulness!

Father-like, he tends and spares us;
well our feeble frame he knows;
in his hands he gently bears us,
rescues us from all our foes.
Praise him! Praise him!
Praise him! Praise him!
Widely as his mercy flows!

Angels, help us to adore him;
ye behold him face to face;
sun and moon, bow down before him,
dwellers all in time and space.
Praise him! Praise him!
Praise him! Praise him!
Praise with us the God of grace!

*Words: Henry Francis Lyre (1793-1847) based on Psalm 103
Tune: Praise my Soul*

Service continues with Prayers of Approach (p. 2)

Collect

Living God,
you accept our stumbling faith,
our misplaced answers,
our false horizons,
and through them build a way of peace:
empower us
to bind the wounds of the world
and loose the debts of oppression, that all may confess the grace
that is your work alone;
through Jesus Christ, anointed for the world. Amen Steven Shakespeare

Service continues with Reading (p. 3)

Reading: Romans 12.1-8 (New Testament, page 157-8) read by Judith Pitchforth

Gradual Hymn

From heav'n you came, helpless babe,
entered our world, your glory veiled;
not to be served but to serve,
and give your life that we might live.

*This is our God, the Servant King,
he calls us now to follow him,
to bring our lives as a daily offering of worship to the Servant King.*

There in the garden of tears,
my heavy load he chose to bear;
his heart with sorrow was torn.
'Yet not my will but yours,' he said.

Come see his hands and his feet,
the scars that speak of sacrifice,
hands that flung stars into space,
to cruel nails surrendered.

So let us learn how to serve,
and in our lives enthrone him;
each other's needs to prefer,
for it is Christ we're serving.

*Words: Graham Kendrick (b.1950)
Tune: The Servant King*

Gospel: Matthew 16.13-20 (New Testament, page 17)

The good news is proclaimed from the heart of the worshipping community.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

At the end

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon: Revd. Sue Hammersley

The service continues with Responding (p. 4)

Prayers of the People are led by Jane Padget

Offertory Hymn

She sits like a bird, brooding on the waters,
hov'ring on the chaos of the world's first day;
she sighs and she sings, mothering creation,
waiting to give birth to all the Word will say.

She wings over earth, resting where she wishes,
lighting close at hand or soaring through the skies;
she nests in the womb, welcoming each wonder,
nourishing potential hidden to our eyes.

She dances in fire, startling her spectators,
waking tongues of ecstasy where dumbness reigned;
she weans and inspires all whose hearts are open,
nor can she be captured, silenced or restrained.

For she is the Spirit, one with God in essence,
gifted by the Saviour in eternal love;
she is the key opening the scriptures,
enemy of apathy and heav'nly dove.

*Words: John Bell (b.1949) and Graham Maule (b.1958)
Tune: Thanky*

The service continues with Abiding (p. 6)

Final Hymn

All for Jesus! All for Jesus!
This our song shall ever be;
for we have no hope nor Saviour
if we have not hope in thee.

All for Jesus! thou wilt give us strength to serve thee hour by hour;
none can move us from thy presence
while we trust thy love and pow'r.

All for Jesus! at thine altar
thou dost give us sweet content;
there, dear Saviour, we receive thee
in thy holy sacrament.

All for Jesus! thou hast loved us,
all for Jesus! thou hast died,
all for Jesus! thou art with us,
all for Jesus, glorified!

All for Jesus! All for Jesus!
This the Church's song shall be,
till at last the flock is gathered
one in love, and one in thee.

*Words: William John Sparrow-Simpson (1859-1952) alt.
Tune: All for Jesus*

The service concludes with the Commission (p. 10)

NOTICES

TODAY In anticipation of their imminent Golden Wedding anniversary, Robin and Eve invite everyone to celebrate with them today after this morning's service with a drink and cake in the lounge.

ANN LEWIN thanks her friends at St Mark's for their prayers and support during her recent illness. Three months on from major surgery, she is making a steady recovery, building up her strength by walking a mile and a half each day alongside the local river where a kingfisher sometimes appears, able to drive again, and balancing activity with a daily siesta. She wants you to know how wonderful it has been to be held by so many people through what has been quite a journey, which isn't over yet.

LOVELY CONGREGATION Thank you so much for your show of good wishes, love and affection concerning our Diamond Wedding celebration on August 10th. Anne & Arthur Button

THEMED SERVICE The next themed service will be on Sunday 10th September. If you would like to be involved please let Sarah C know

HERITAGE OPEN DAYS Once again, St Mark's is opening its doors as part of the national Heritage Open Days scheme. We are expecting to be open to the public on the afternoons of 7 and 9 September this year. If you would like to spend a couple of hours being available to talk to visitors about our building on either of those days, please let me know. Philip Booth 255 0634/07950 47288

THE BIG SHIFT. The big banks are continuing to finance damaging coal, gas and oil projects to the tune of several billion pounds. Christian Aid want us to contact them to persuade them to stop doing so. Some big projects have been checked by popular pressure on the banks. See the climate notice board for details. Michael Bayley

SOUP RUN would be grateful for any donations of tins of soup (chicken, oxtail or tomato), or of baked beans. If you're 'in the know' they can go in the usual place; otherwise please feel free to talk to Gary or one of the other Soup Run team leaders. Thank you

NEW GROUP I am looking to facilitate the start of a small group from September - which could meet every two weeks - for a bit of chat, support, bible study and prayer, and of course friendship - please contact me if you think you might be interested Kim mob 07967-829561 kimberlywillis@btinternet.com -

NEW DISCUSSION GROUP Dave Baillie is setting up a group to discuss social issues and build relationships amongst group members. Members will decide the aims and format together. If you are interested contact Dave at davebaillie@phonecoop.coop or on 01142665160 or on Facebook

STUDY AND LEARNING GROUP The first meeting of this new PCC subgroup will be on Thursday 21st September at 7.30pm in the Vicarage. The group will have oversight of provision for study and learning for all ages at St Mark's. If you are interested in coming along, please let Sarah C know.

ROOM NEEDED FOR ASYLUM

SEEKER The pregnant Thai wife of an asylum seeker we know at St Mark's, who is being supported by St Andrew's URC, and who helps at Broomhall Breakfast is in fairly urgent need of somewhere decent to stay. Her current accommodation isn't hygienic enough for a newborn, and so getting somewhere else is really quite important. For more details contact Robert Beard - arjay61@hotmail.com.

HOPE FOR THE FUTURE has just been awarded £90,000 over 3 years by the Joseph Rowntree Charitable Trust for our work with constituents to enable them to have constructive conversations with their MP about climate change and the need for determined political action. If you would like to know more about Hope the Future, look at our website (www.hfff.org.uk), pick up a leaflet from below the climate noticeboard to the right of the main door out of the church or talk to Jo Musker-Sherwood, Sarah Robinson or Michael Bayley.

BROOMHILL COMMUNITY

LIBRARY celebrates 60 years! Six weeks of events begin with the heritage open days 8-10 Sept. URGENT help is needed for a working party to help clean up, decorate basement rooms, paint garage doors, tidy up garden and prepare displays between 30 Aug - 6 Sept. Could you come along at some point? Do you know someone with expertise? Please let us know your availability and preferred choice of task. Contact Kathy Harbord at kathy.harbord@broomhill-library.org.uk

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTRY AT THE

HALLAMSHIRE a valued volunteer role within the hospital chaplaincy service is to take communion or say bedside prayers with patients on a Sunday. It is a monthly commitment, which I have found to be very rewarding. If anyone is interesting in being involved in this – no experience needed - you're welcome to have a chat with me or Mark Newitt. Rosie Hunt
